Webjet launches physical gift cards

Australia and New Zealand's largest online travel agent launch new physical gift cards

Webjet have launched physical gift cards nationwide, allowing customers to give the gift of travel to family and friends either in physical or existing e-Gift card, right in time for Christmas.

Available in Woolworths supermarkets from today (16th of October 2017), and Australia Post outlets from the 23rd of October. The gift cards are offered in AU$50 and AU$100 values with up to eight being redeemable in one transaction on Webjet.com.au.

To celebrate the launch, Australia Post will be offering 10% off all Webjet gift card purchases between November 6th and 12th.

Webjet's gift cards can be used to purchase ANY flight, hotel night, holiday packages or Webjet Exclusives Tour.

In addition to the physical gift cards, Webjet will continue to offer e-gift cards up to the value of AU$1,000 online.

Country Manager of Webjet for Australia and New Zealand, David Galt says, "As Australia's #1 online travel agency we're excited to offer a new way for our customers to purchase their travel with Webjet."

"The cards will make a perfect gift for consumers racking their brains for last minute Christmas presents" he continued.

Webjet's gift cards will also be available nationwide in IGA, Big W, Kmart, Drake Supermarkets, Romeos Supermarkets and Chapley's by early November.
